

Tolls are justified

BY T. MAY, THE PROVINCE FEBRUARY 22, 2011

There aren't many things the Liberals have done that I agree with. However, I agree with Shirley Bond regarding tolling the bridges into Vancouver.

Users pay for the convenience and time savings this new infrastructure provides. The Coquihalla was tolled for many years, and was eventually paid for through taxation and those tolls. If you wanted or had to use it, you paid for it. Very simple in my opinion.

B.C. Ferries are loosely considered part of the Trans-Canada Highway. Should these be free, too?
